

MyShare: Platinum Demerger

Paying the tax due on your Valterra Platinum shares

You will need to pay some dividend tax on the Platinum Valtterra shares you've received.

To work out how much dividend tax you will need to pay, follow the steps below.

We've added Matt's story as an example to guide you.

Calculating the tax due

1. Check how many Platinum Valterra shares you received

Your broker or share plan administrator will provide you with a statement detailing how many Platinum Valterra shares you received: 110 for every 1075 Anglo American shares held on 30th May.

Before the Platinum demerger, Matt held 73.19 Anglo American shares.

For every 1,075 Anglo American shares held on 30th May, Matt received a distribution of 110 Platinum Valterra shares.

This means Matt received 7.489 Platinum Valterra shares.
 $110/1,075 \times 73.19 = 7.489$

2. Calculate the total value of your Platinum Valterra shares

To do this, multiply the number of Platinum Valterra shares you received by the price that these were worth on 30 May 2025, the day of the demerger: ZAR 704.72.

Matt multiplies his 7.489 Valterra Platinum shares by ZAR 704.72 to work out their total value.

The Valterra Platinum shares are worth ZAR 5,277.65
 $\text{ZAR } 704.72 = \text{ZAR } 5,277.65$

3. Calculate the taxable value of your Platinum Valterra shares

To do this, divide the total value of your Platinum Valterra shares by the FX rate, which is 3.159 ZAR : 1 BRL.

This is the amount you will need to report and pay dividend tax on.

Matt divides the total value of his Platinum Valterra shares, ZAR 5,277.65, by 3.159 ZAR to work out their taxable value.

Matt will need to report and pay dividend tax on BRL 1,670.67.
 $\text{ZAR } 5,277.65 / 3.159 = \text{BRL } 1,670.67$

How to report and pay the tax due

In Brazil, dividend tax will be due at a rate of 15% on the total taxable value of your Platinum Valterra shares.

You will need to fill out a Personal Annual Income Tax Declaration (DIRPF) and pay any tax due using Carnê-Leão payment vouchers. These payments are made via the eCAC Portal (see here) by the last business day of the following month in which the income is received. When you fill out your Personal Annual Income Tax Declaration (DIRPF), you will be asked to declare the amount you have paid via Carnê-Leão.

The Annual Personal Income Tax Return (DIRPF) for income received in 2024 must be filed between 15 March and 31 May 2025. The official filing dates for income received in 2025 have not yet been announced but will be scheduled within the first half of 2026.
